CIRCUS HERE
NEXT FRIDAY

All the Wonders of the World Will Be Seen at That Time.

Rinsing Brothers' circus with the newly added spectacle of "Joan of Arc," a new menagerie and rebuilt parade, will exhibit in Clarksburg on the golf grounds next Friday afternoon and night.

Five special trains will bring the circus. The parade will be given at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. The twenty-four-hour-man with his corps of assistants, is expected in the city hourly to arrange for the parade, buy the provisions for the day's stay here, and to do all the other preliminary work that attends the coming of the big show. The management will maintain a downtown ticket office for the accommodation of those who do not want to stem the crowds on the grounds. Reserved seats and admissions will be sold there at the same price charged in the wagons.

All foods and provisions needed for the stay here will be bought in the local markets. A few items on the daily shopping bill of Steward A. L.
Webb are 200 pounds of butter, 150 gallons of milk, 200 pounds of coffee, 35 bags of table salt, 2,500 pounds of fresh meat, 1,000 loaves of bread, 250 dozen eggs, 1,500 pounds of vegetables, two barrels of sugar, 50 pounds of lard, 100 dozen oranges, 50 tons of hay, 20 tons of straw, 350 bushels of oats and four cords of wood.

An hour after the last section of the train reaches town the show will be under canvas and the city will be richer in population by 1,200 people, to say nothing of 650 horses, 40 elephants and 1,000 other menagerie animals. The main exhibition tent is the largest stretch of canvas ever raised. It is the most remarkable audience room in the world. It seats 15,000 persons. The next to the large-est tent ever constructed is the menagerie. In it are 102 cages, dens, tanks, pens and lairs stretching through the center of it are more than half the elephants in America.

Among them is Jennie, who is 215 years old. She was a zoological attraction in London when George Washington was president of the United States.

The great spectacle with a cast of 200 characters, 600 horses, 300 dancing girls, grand opera chorus and trainload of special scenery, costumes, properties and the main tent. Following it a great company of European circus actors will appear. Prominent among them are the Ty-Bell sisters, known as the "human butterflies," the Saxon brothers, the world's strongest men; the Balkan family of European master equestrians, the Jan-owsky troupe of novelty acrobats, the three Jahns, sensational balancing ladder experts, the Lorbeer troupe of strong-arm jugglers, the Portia quartette of women contortionists, the Maryland family of springboard gymnasts, Mijarez, the Mexican wire wizard, the Alpine family of wire walkers, the Klarkonian aerialists, the three best herds of trained elephants in the world, Capt. Huling's educated seals, and the fifty funniest clowns on earth.

THE
THEATERS

Clarksburg theatergoers tonight will have the pleasure of seeing their old favorites, the Keyes Sisters, and the happy-go-lucky comedian, Mr.
Chester A. Keyes, who has lost none of his prestige since his last visit to this city. The Keyes Stock Company comes to the Robinson Grand for an engagement of three weeks with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.
The play for the first three days of this week, commencing tonight, will be a semi-western drama in four acts, the first two acts being laid near the Golden Gate of California, at San Francisco, while the last two acts take place in Venice, Italy.

The popularity of the Keyes Sisters and their company in this city assures them of still further continued success during their engagement.
Each production which they will offer to the patrons of the Robinson Grand will be mounted with their own special scenery. Manager Chester A. Keyes having spared no expense this season in equipping his show with the best that money could procure. The electrical effects add materially to the scenic embellishments, and it can be said, without dispute, that no other company, either a one night stand or a stock organization can offer to the patrons of the Grand any better effects than the Keyes Sisters and their company.

The specialties between the acts by the Keyes Sisters and the happy-go-lucky comedian, Chester A. Keyes, are some of the features of the company.
The Misses Dorothea and Helen Keyes have several new songs which have been written for their own special use, while Chester Keyes is constantly busy writing new material for his many parodies.

A special ladies matinee will be given on Wednesday when souvenir photos of the Keyes Sisters will be given to all patrons at the Grand. On Saturday every school child attending will receive a nice bag of Keyes Sisters kisses free.

For the first three days the show at the Odeon will consist of comedy and novelty acts. They come to the Odeon with the best recommendations and should prove a pleasing attraction.

The regular reels of pictures will be shown in connection with feature reels for Wednesday, a thrilling two-reel subject, "Frank Merriwell's School Days," the second one in the series of interesting pictures.

On Wednesday a special matinee will be given for school children from 3:30 to 5 p. m., when all children will be admitted for five cents.
